extensive discussions between counsel and consultation with the principals of the applicants. These discussions, which are ongoing, are requiring more time than might otherwise be required due to the significant time differences between the applicants' principals' location and Washington (for example, KR's principals reside in Hawaii, which is six hours behind eastern daylight savings time).

The time devoted to these settlement discussions has delayed KR's ability to complete preparation of its reply to KES's Opposition. KR is requesting an additional two business days in which to file its reply in order to afford the parties time to continue their settlement efforts, as well as allow KR to prepare its response. KR recognizes the Commission's desire to expedite hearing proceedings, and that extensions of time are not to be routinely granted. However, the Commission also encourages settlements between parties, and the brief two business day extension requested will not prejudice any party or unduly delay this proceeding.

Counsel for KES, Lori Lynn Forbes and the Mass Media Bureau have all consented to a grant of this request. Counsel for KR has also notified the Presiding Judge's office of the filing of this request.

Wherefore, for the foregoing reasons, KR respectfully requests the Presiding Judge to grant it until May 24, 1993, in which to file its reply to KES's "Opposition to Motion to Enlarge the Issues."

Respectfully submitted,

KR PARTNERS
